Dear Editor...

You are an editor of The Sun, a big New York newspaper, and got a letter just before Christmas.

Dear Editor,

I am 8 years old.

Some of my friends say there is no Santa Claus.

Some of my friends say there is no Santa Claus.

Papa says, "If you see it in the Sun, it's so."

Please tell me the truth. Is there a Santa Claus? Virginia O'Hanlon

You have to write her a reply. What should you do?

Question:

Do you tell her "there is a Santa Claus"?

A: I'll tell her "there is a Santa Claus."

Virginia, your friends are wrong.
They only believe what they see.
Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus.

He exists just as love exists.

Not believe in Santa Claus?

Even if you watched all the chimneys on Christmas Eve and did not see Santa Claus, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. There are wonders you do not see and cannot see in the world.

No Santa Claus?

Thank God, he lives and lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, no, 10 times 10,000 years from now, he will continue to make children happy.
